CHSS ADVANCEMENT COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIP
The CHSS Advancement Council Scholarship was established in 2011 and is supported through the College’s “Dean’s Fund for Excellence” and the members of the CHSS Advancement Council. This scholarship is intended to support an undergraduate student who is a major in the humanities or social/behavioral sciences. Through this annual scholarship, the CHSS Advancement Council seeks to emphasize the value of a public liberal arts education and the importance of developing an interdisciplinary education and the analytical skills it fosters. Typical award amount is $2,000.

WESTERN ALUMNI LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP
The Western Alumni Leadership Scholarship was established in 2008 to provide scholarships for students who display a talent for being active students within their community, who participate in leadership building activities, provide service to others, and succeed academically and also have a financial need. An award will be made to one student from the Humanities (Communication Studies, English, History, Journalism, Liberal Studies, Modern & Classical Languages, or Philosophy) and one student from the Social and Behavioral Sciences (Anthropology, Communication Science & Disorders, Physical Education, Health & Recreation, Political Science, Psychology or Sociology). Typical award amount is $1,000 to each student.

ELYSE C. ALPER SCHOLARSHIP FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
The Elyse C. Alper Scholarship for International Studies was established in 2010 to honor and celebrate the life of Elyse and carry forward her lifelong joy of traveling and establishing friendships across continents. The Elyse C. Alper Scholarship provides an award to support study outside the United States at a recognized university to promote and further international understanding and goodwill. The university outside the United States where the applicant plans to study must be endorsed by the student’s department and accepted as a credit course in the applicant’s WWU degree program. This scholarship is open to all WWU students. Typical award amount is $3,000.

MIKE SHARAR INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIP
The Mike Sharar Internship Scholarship was established in 2012 by Kerri Lynn and Tommy Inglesby to honor Mike Sharar (Jun 17, 1947 – March 24, 2009) who supported her as an undergraduate when she felt she could no longer pursue her education. The scholarship will be awarded annually to support students participating in a fulltime internship during any quarter. The internship must be at least 20 hours per week and formally administered by the University. Typical award amount is $2,000.

HOW TO APPLY:
More information about scholarship guidelines and criteria, as well as the application forms, are available on the College’s website https://chss.wwu.edu/chss/college-humanities-and-social-sciences-scholarship-opportunities.

To be considered for a scholarship, you must complete an application form for the specific scholarship (although only one application is needed for both the CHSS Advancement Council and Western Alumni Leadership Scholarships) and meet the scholarship criteria (including having at least three quarters of coursework remaining before anticipated graduation, as of the beginning of fall quarter in the year of the award). Your completed application form and attachments (application including essay, academic record, and at least two letters of recommendation) must be submitted to the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Application deadline is Monday, APRIL 25, 2016

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR QUESTIONS
Visit the College’s website at https://chss.wwu.edu/chss/college-humanities-and-social-sciences-scholarship-opportunities, or contact Kirsten Anderson in the College of Humanities and Social Science Dean’s office by email to Kirsten.Anderson@wwu.edu or phone 360-650-3763