Western Washington University – Veni. Vidi. Ascendi. 2018
Campus Recreation Services, Bellingham WA
Saturday, February 3rd, 2018
Western Washington University is looking forward to hosting the 11th annual Veni Vidi Ascendi bouldering competition. In order to provide everyone with ample climbing time and space, registration will be capped at 145. A wait list will be kept after the cap is reached in case of drop-outs. In order to accommodate non-NC3 competing students as well as community members we will also be saving 15 spots of the 145 available for this type of participant. If by 1/17/18 at 5pm these 15 spots are not filled, they will go to registrations on the wait list. Only 14 athletes/school are able to register if the athlete would like their scores to count for the NC3 climbing series, but after 1/17/18 at 5pm, 6 more athletes/school may register on a first come first serve basis. Teams should register online at https://commerce.cashnet.com/ASCENDI2018

Rules:
- Judges have final say on all rulings.
- A competitor must be established on the start holds before continuing.
- Competitors must match hands or show control on the finish hold.
- If there is a technical difficulty with a route (i.e. a hold spins or breaks) and climber falls due to the technical difficulty the attempt does not count against them. If they proceed past the difficulty and fall later on the route the fall counts against their score.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. If a student is removed from the competition they are dropped from the NC3 and his or her school is deducted 75 points.
- If a climber uses a hold that is not on route they are required to step off the route and a fall is recorded.
- Competition officials reserve the right to bump competitors

House Rules:
- Each route has a 5-attempt limit. You must complete the route in 5-attempts for it to count in your scored routes.
- No use of non-taped surfaces or bolt holes, but flagging is permitted.
- Flash bonus is 10 points.

Registration and Eligibility

Eligibility for the 2018 Circuit
Interesting in being eligible for the 2018 NC3 circuit? That’s swell, and we’re happy to have you join us. In the past there has been some confusion so to be clear in order to participate in an NC3 comp and have your score count towards yourself and your school, you need to do/be the following:

- Be a current student (be sure to use your school issued email address)
- Complete the registration form AND subsequent verification by the Tuesday before the comp you would like to be eligible for.

That’s it, easy right? This year we have simplified things to an online eligibility form! Each individual must complete the form for themselves. We will no longer accept team rosters, each individual on a team must complete the form. There is a follow-up eligibility verification that must be completed to be truly NC3 eligible. You may complete the form below, or follow this link.
