Western Washington University is proud to announce the 2016-2017 Western Leadership Scholars Program, brought to you by the Karen W. Morse Leadership Institute and the Western LEADS Program! This is an opportunity reserved for admitted students who have demonstrated incredible talent in being guiding forces for others.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THE PROGRAM?

Western Leadership Scholars enjoy many benefits, including:

- $1,500 scholarship contingent upon successful completion of the leadership course
- Enrollment in a 2-credit leadership course during fall quarter of their first year. This course provides 2 credits towards the Social Science General University Requirement (GUR)
- Priority registration for the subsequent class, Leadership 101
- Special invitations to events by specified on-campus programs, such as Western’s Leadership Advantage Speakers Series
- Participation in shaping campus-wide
HW CAN I LEARN MORE ABOUT LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AT WESTERN?

Opportunities to discover, learn about, and participate in leadership activities at Western are virtually limitless. Western empowers students to take advantage of opportunities that surround them, whether that is continuing a lifelong passion or trying something completely new. Student leaders are the driving force for innovative and exciting developments at Western. Learn more about the incredible things our students are doing by checking out Western’s nationally recognized Associated Student Government. Our students are creating and managing clubs, hosting concerts, films, and other entertainment events, developing sustainability programs, pursuing social issues, lobbying for student interests with lawmakers and much more.
